Colonel Jay M. Holmes Takes Kiwanians "Inside A Door"

George Quinif is sole owner now of Walled-Lake Door Manufacturing Company which had its origin in a chicken hatchery in Walled-Lake Michigan about six years ago and is today rated by Dunn Bradstreet as a million dollar organization.

Colonel Jay M. Holmes, told Kiwanians of the meteoric rise of the door concern at noon Thursday. The Colonel earned his title as a member of the Blackhawk Division and the Red Ball (34th.) division in world wars 1 and 11. He resigned in 1945 to go into the business world.

Holmes, now living in Cameron and awaiting a weather permit to continue concerete work on the floor of the door manufacturing plant, said that applications for work at the plant may be obtained at the Chamber of Commerce office in Cameron but that early filing of applications would not mean priority when the jobs are filled. Holmes said that he would make an announcement through this paper sometime in March when the company will be ready for personnel interviews. Residency in Cameron and area will be greatly in favor of the applicant Holmes said. "We do not need carpenters or skilled people" he continued, but expect to hire at the outset between forty and fifty laborers and from that initial hiring will ultimately come foremen Holmes said.

Wage scale at the plant will begin at $1.10 per hour and will have added benefits such as group hospitalization paid vacation and four or five holidays throughout the year. The work day will be eight hours, five days per week.

1,700 doors per day is the aim of the Cameron facility and that production said the assistant to the president will be doubled in the future to help catch up with the back-log of orders on hand. This of course will greatly increase the personnel here he added.

The Walled-Lake plant in Alabama produces 4,500 doors per day now. Other installations are in California, Pennsylvania, Arizona and the original operation in Walled-Lake Michigan. The Arizona operation is just now becom-

Blood Program In Balance As Milam Red Cross Reorganizes

The Milam Chapter of the American Red Cross is due to be reorganized and revitalized as the result of a mass meeting of interested citizens in Rockdale, Monday evening February 13.

Floyd Stark, treasurer and acting chairman of the Chapter presented Miss Mary Caruthers, field representative from the National office. She stated that the Milam chapter is at the crossroads and would have to be dissolved and reorganized.

Major problem facing the chapter is lack of funds to carry on the complete program, need for an active board of directors and sufficient number of public spirited citizens to give the time and effort to make a successful chapter.

A steering committee composed of Floyd Stark, M. S. Croft, J D. Peebles, William Cooke, Richard Moseley, E. A. Perrin, Miss Mildred Thornton, Mrs. John Richards and W. R. Sanders was elected.

The new steering committee then delved into the re-organizing program. They were impressed with the urgency because a fund campaign should be held in March. As a result, a meeting of the newly elected steering committee was set for Wednesday evening, February 15 at the Singer Grill in Rockdale at 7:30 p.m.

One of the knotty problems to confront the new board of directors to be elected in March is whether to continue the blood donor program. This phase of the Red Cross program is considered to be one of the most important by many people, but also the most expensive to the chapter. Its value, in relation to the cost and ability to raise sufficient funds for it and other chapter activities will be a major item on agenda of the new board it was declared by a member.

Those in attendance at the Monday meeting were: E. A. Perrin, Mrs. Grady Stidham, Roy Griffith Richard W. Moseley, Ellis Harmon, Floyd Stark, M. S. Croft, W. H. Cooks, M. N. Stricker, Mrs. Joe Wright, Mrs. Sam Peeples, Mrs. John Richards, Mrs. T. L. Austin, Mrs. H. S. Woods Jr., Mrs. Sara Bankston, Miss Ruth Kirk, Dr. David Shapiro, Dr. T. S. Barkley and Miss Mary Caruthers.

Mothers Praised By Mrs. Harden In Polio March

Along with the wonderful response of the mothers in the "Mother's March" in the recent polio drive. Mrs. O. B. Harden reports that it was especially gratifying to have the help of the Telophone Exchange employees.

Mrs. Willie Faulkner baked a cake which was served in the ladies longe at the Telephone Exchange and each of those who ate the cake and drank the coffee donated an amout to the March of Dimes, for a total of $31.31. Mrs. Ruby Fogle and other operators in turn baked a cake.

Mrs. Harden was elaborate in her praise of each of those who aided in the Mother's March. The captains and the lieutenants in all the districts, including the Colored section and the Latin American section did a wonderful job Mrs. Harden said and the final tally for the mother's part in the program was $807.10 - only very slightly under 1955 total.

More Than 2 Million Members Observe National 4-H Week

The 121,044 Texas 4-H club members will join their fellow members, approximately 2,100,000, from every state in the nation in the observance of National 4-H Club Week from March 3-11.

The 4-H club program is directed by the Agricultural Extension Services of the Land-Grant Colleges of the United States in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Locally, 4-H programs and activities, are directed by the county agricultural agents and home demonstration agents with valuable assistance from both adult and junior 4-H leaders.

According to Director G. G. Gibson of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the objectives of the week are to provide members a special occasion for taking a look backwards at achievements and making plans for future activities on their farms, in their homes and communities; to inform the public of the value of 4-H training; to recognize the contributions of local leaders and to enlist the support of public-spirited, youth-minded citizens in leadership roles; to give 4-H members and the public and opportunity to know more about the 1956 4-H theme, "Improving Family and Community Living" and to interest other young people in enrolling in local 4-H clubs.

Director Gibson says that plans are now being perfected in the counties for the week-long obser-

Milam Lodge No. 123 was honored to have Grand Chanceller Jack Needham of Brownwood, Texas as their visiting speaker, Monday February 13. The Grand Chancellor presented proficiency cards to Dewey McElrath and Walter Lucas for various parts in Rank work. Milam Lodge was commended by the Grand Chancellor for their interest in conferring ranks upon their candidates. Members of Milam Lodge was commended for their loyalty to The Pythian Home at Weatherford and implored them to remain loyal to the Pythian Order and to their Lodge.

Local Lodge Deputy D.S. Wimberley expressed appreciation of Milam Lodge and its members to Grand Chancellor Jack Needham for his visit to the Lodge.

The meeting was well attended and those present enjoyed a fine lunch provided by several members of the lodge.

Bassell Wilson Files For First Charter Mayor

The first man ever to file for mayor of the City of Cameron under a charter is Bassell Wilson, of Wilson Produce Company.

"I feel my training, education and experience in the efficient operation of businesses should be of great value to me if I should be elected to the office of mayor of the city of Cameron." Wilson said.

Continuing Wilson added "I feel that a man should certainly make a success of his own business before taking on the management of the office of mayor. I pledge a thoroughly honest and efficient tenure of office if I am elected mayor."

Wilson filed his name Friday morning February 10 with Mayor O. B. Horstmann, for the election to be held exactly eight weeks later on April 10.

The Cameron business man now owns the Wilson Credit Jewlers, and the Wilson Produce Company here. He is a 1932 graduate of Baylor University, a Kiwanian, member of the Knights of Phthias lodge, was recently installed

Knights Of Pythias Program On Extensive Radio Net Sunday

Mary Martin, Raymond Massey Mary Pickford and Freddy Martin, together with civic, industrial and high governmental leaders of the United States and Canada, will tell of the achievements and plans of the Fraternal Order Knights of Pythias on a continent-wide radio broadcast this weekend. This will be part of the celebration of the 92nd anniversary of the Order, Saturday and Sunday, February 18 and 19.

The broadcast will go on more than 1100 stations.

Originating on the Mutual Broadcasting System in New York with pick ups in 14 other cities throughout the United States and Canada, the program will be heard on the Dominion Network in Canada, the Yankee Network in New England, and the Don Lee Network on the West Coast.

Hundreds of other radio stations —both independent ones and stations of other networks will carry the bradcast on a delayed basis.

"The program is designed to give an accounting of our stewardship during these 92 years," said Peter S. Ford, Martinsville, Virginia, supreme chancellor of the organization, which now has nearly 3000 subordinate lodges in Canada and the United States, including Alaska and Hawaii. Its largest auxilairy, the Pythian Sisters, has over 2500 temples.

Reports will be made of some of the most significant of the fraternity's charitable projects which total many millions of dollars each year.

Plans will be announced for a six month campaign in which every citizen of North America will be asked to enlist.

"In this campaign, we will not ask the public for a single penny" Ford declared, "But we will ask the help of every man, woman and child in an effort that can save thousands of lives and millions of dollars during the next six months."

Next Wednesday Is Deadline On Farm Taxpaying

Farmers who passed up the January 15 deadline for filing estimates of 1955 income need to file their final 1955 income tax return by February 15, 1956 to avoid penalty, says Mr. H. W. Ewing of the Temple Internal Revenue Office.

For income tax purposes, a farmer is one who derives two-thirds or more of his gross income from farming.

Plans For Opening Liberal Arts Cornerstone Exactly Year Old

Education Week March 5-10 May Be Proper Time

One year ago this week this article appeared in The Cameron Herald: COMMITTEE PLANS FOR CORNERSTONE APPROVED BY SCHOOL BOARD.

At the Wednesday night meeting of the Cameron School Board John Henderson, chairman of the committee in charge of the opening of the corner stone of the Milam County Liberal Institute, was given the go ahead sign with plans he presented to the board.

Seven points were listed by Mr. Henderson and his committee for the ceremonies and they are as follows: 1. That the Mayor and Chairman of the School Board jointly preside at the ceremony. 2. That the Yoe High School band participate, particularly at the beginning and at the close of the ceremony. 3. Have the hour of presentation fixed so that the school students may attend. 4. That an inventory of all the contents of the corner stone be taken and also that they be reproduced by photograph. 5. That a short talk be given by a representative citizen who had some connection with the school, as the contents are presented to the present school system. 6. That the corner stone by sealed again with the original relics along with newspaper accounts of the proceedings. That the cornerstone be reset in a suitable position of the present site in memory of those who worked hard toward early education needs in Cameron and Milam County.

The seven suggestions were signed by John Henderson, Bess Triggs, O. B. Horstman, Oxsheer Smith and Lula C. Gillis.

Davilla Patrons Pray For Relief From Mud

Milam Commissioners Court heard Dave Mayfield read a petition from residents in the area between Rogers and Davilla stating that when the court is ready that the residents who signed the petition are ready to "Get out of the mud." Mr. Mayfield was profuse in his expression of gratitude for the work of the commissioners court, stating that he didn't believe there was a "Better set of commissioners in the state."

The petition pointed out that the mileage envolved is 4.1 and that the school bus has to travel 24 miles to get to Sharp in muddy weather. He said that 98 precent of the residents had signed.

Surplus Food Distribution Agreement Made In Milam County

At its regular meeting on Monday, February 13, 1956, the Commissioners' Court of Milam County authorized the making of an agreement with the State Department of Public Welfare for the distribution of surplus food commodities to be furnished by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

This matter had been under consideration by the Comminssioners' Court for some time, and various conferences have been had with representatives of the three incorporated towns in the county, Thorndale, Rockdale, and Cameron, as well as other interested groups. Each of the town authorities have agreed to cooperate.

The Federal law making such commodities available through State Supervisory Agencies, which in Texas is the Department of Public Welfare, requires the local sponsoring agency to furnish necessary personnel, warehousing transportation, record keeping, and accounting requirements.

The program compares with the school lunch program now exsiting in Milam County.

The County will have primary responsibilty for carrying out the program but the cities will assist the County in defraying the administrative overhead at the local level, these expenses being very modest in proportion to the total value of the commodities available. Within the limitations provided by law the Commissioners' Court has ruled that those persons eligible to receive such commodities will include recipients of public assistance under the State Welfare Program, unemployment compensation, old age and survivor's insurance, pensions, and workman's compensation, so long as such recipienat's monthly income from all sources does not exceed $60.00 per month, and also indigents resident in Milam County. No recipient may have capital resources in the form of real or personal property in excess of $300.00 in value. For example: A recipient of old age assistance who has no real or personal property exceeding a value of $300.00 would be eligible to receive such commodities with allowance for normal dependents related to such recipient and living with and dependent upon him.

Under the agreement the U. S. Department of Agriculture will make available for distribution to such eligible recipients, butter, processed cheese, dry milk, lard, beans, rice, flour, cornmeal, and pork and gravy in sufficient quantities and proportions to meet recognized dietary standards.

Welfare Grants Unaffected

The receipt of such surplus commodities cannot by law diminish welfare grants now being received by those persons otherwise eligible.

In effect, the distribution of the recipients, who normally expend the principal portion of their grants for food items, thus making available to them additional funds for clothing, fuel, rent, medicine, and grocery items other than basic staples.

In determining eligibility the County will rely upon certification from the State Department of Public Welfare of recipients of old age assistance, aid to the blind, and aid to dependent children, and for normal dependents as eligible to receive commodities, provided the other conditions of need as imposed by the County are met on an individual case basis. In the case of indigents the County will rely upon certification from appointed voluntary committees in each community as to the conditions of need and lack of income.

Considerable detail remains to be worked out and it is anticipated that an early conference will be called by the officials of the County and representatives of the various incorporated cities in order to work out the procedures. When this has been accomplished public announcement will be made of the commencement of the distribution program.

The County Judge, Charles C. Smith, Jr., on releasing this information commented that "All of the people with whom we have talked realize that our government is sending billions of dollars worth of food and other items overseas. They realize also that we have billions of dollars worth of surplus agricultural commodities stored in this country. To us it appears not only wise but desirable to make these items available to such of our local residents as are deserving, if for no other reason than that by so doing we give respect to the admonition, 'charity begins at home'."

Cotton Treatment By Systemic Method Is Proposed By Agent

During the last few months, several questions have been raised concerning the treatment of cotton seed with a systemic insecticide to control certain pests of young cotton. This is a summary of the latest information that we have in regard to treating cotton seed with a systemic insecticide.

A systemic insecticide is a compound that be taken up by the plants and translocated into all parts of the plant's system. Several insecticides exhibit systemic action, but at the present time, only one compound is recommended for treating cotton seed. This compound is known as Compound 3911. Results of research show that 4 to 6 weeks' protection from planting date has been obtained against THRIPS, APIDS, SPIDER MITES and LEAF MINERS with Compound 3911 when applied to planting seed. Research data also indicate that the seed treatment will replace the first two early season applications but will not be entirely effective again st the overwintered boll weevil. One or more applications of a recommended insecticide should be applied to the cotton before the squares are one-third grown to protect the young fruite from weevils or other destructive insects.

Due to the hazards involved, Compound 3911 cannot be purchased by individuals for seed treatment. There are three companies in Texas equipped for treating seeds with this compound. Two companies are located at Waco and one at College Station. Anyone interested in obtaining the addresses of these companies can write to our office.

Farmers will have to transport their seeds to and from the treating plant. The cost per acre for planting treated seeds will be approximately $3.00.

Only a limited supply of Compound 3911 will be available for the 1956 cotton crop in this State. It is recommended that persons planting treated seed should have only enough seed treated to plant a few acres or a small percentage of his total cotton crop. The treated seeds should be planted adjoining untreated seeds in order to compare the effectiveness of Compound 3911 with other insecticides.

These needs can be met by 1 four foot trough for each 100 chicks at the start. At 6 to 7 weeks of age, they will need 3 troughs 4 ft long by 4 in deep per 100 birds.

Five 1 gallon waterers by each brooder having a capacity of 500 chicks is recommended. From 2 to 3 weeks of age, 2 waterers with a 3 gallon capacity should be provided for each 100 birds. If a water system is available, a 4 ft automatic water trough should be provided for each 250 chicks.

Where chicks have access to range, one square foot of floor space for every 2 birds, is required. Since green feed is often not available on the range, there is a trend towards growing pullet replacement chicks in confinement. Under these conditions each bird should be provided with one square foot of floor space, until they are 8 to 9 weeks of age.

On this basis a 30 ft by 40 ft house would be required to raise replacements for a thousand hen laying flock. It will probably be to the poultryman's advantage to double this space, 30 by 80 ft, and keep the pullets confined to the house until maturity.

One sound method that is now being employed by some poultrymen is to leave the chicks in one house for the 6 months growing period and for the first year of egg production.

Making sure the brooder house and equipment is adequate and in good repair will pay good dividends in the production of a high percentage of good quality uniform pullets for next year's laying flock.

Analyses Prove Supplement Value In Fed Silage

Feeding balanced supplement with corn silage greatly increases the selling price of silage that is marketed through beef cattle, according to an analysis of recent college and commercial feeding tests.

Livestock specialists have analyzed results of three college feeding tests where different degrees of silage supplementation were used, along with a fourth test of complete supplementation conducted at the Purina research farm in Missouri. The college tests were reported at the 1955 Annual Southern Agriculture Worker's Conference. Results point up the tremendous differences in silage utilization that may be obtained.

Calves were started at weaning in all tests. Those in Lot 1 of the college tests were fed silage without any supplement. They showed an average daily gain of 0.76 lbs. requiring 53.9 pounds of silage to produce one pound of gain. With silage valued at $10 per ton, the total feed cost per pound of gain in this pen was 27 cents. Lot 2 got the same kind of silage along with ½ pound of soybean meal per head per day. This lot gained 1.12 pounds per day, and showed a total feed cost of 20 cents per pound of gain. Steers in Lot 3 got two pounds of soybean meal with their silage. They gained 1.43 pounds per day, and the feed cost was 16 cents per pound of gain.

Steers in the Purina test were fed three pounds of balanced supplement per head per day with the silage. This program produced the most profitable marketing of silage in the four tests studied. These steers gained 1.91 pounds per head per day, requiring 13.9 pounds of silage and 1.57 pounds gain. Total feed cost was reduced to 14 cents per pound of gain.

Silage utilization in the tests ranged all the way from a pound of gain from 53.9 pounds of unsupplemented silage to a pound of gain from only 13.9 pounds of properly supplemented silage. Farmers who feed their silage with a balanced supplement are obviously "getting more from what they have."

Fish Sticks Making Big Lenten Hit

Much less problem this year planning tempting Lenten meals, isn't it, with the convenient ne fish sticks which are going like the proverbial pancakes. Quick frozen and pre-cooked, these delicate little fillets of ocean fresh fish are winning new converts to this nutritious protein food.

Good sauces pep up any fish dinner, and fish sticks practically call for them. Here are two easy sauce recipes that can be made in a few moments, that don't require any exotic ingredients, and owe their tang to the liberal use of Tabasco, the famous liquid pepper seasoning without which no fish dish should ever go to the table.

Quick Fish Sauces

Mayonnaise Base:
¼ teaspoon Tabasco
½ cup mayonnaise
1 teaspoon minced onion
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 gherkin, chopped
6 stuffed olives, chopped

Combine Tabasco and mayonnaise. Add remaining ingredients; mix well. Serve with seafood.
YIELD: 1 cup

Tomato Base:
½ teaspoon Tabasco
1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce
1½ teaspoons horseradish
¼ teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons lemon juice

Combine Tabasco and tomato sauce. Add remaining ingredients; mix well. Serve with seafood.
YIELD: 1¼ cup.

Hugh Smith Returns From One Day Ford Management Meet

Hugh Smith of Stedman Tractor Co., Ford tractor and implement dealer in Cameron, has just returned from Statler-Hilton Hotel in Dallas, where he attended a one-day management meeting con tor and Implement Divison,Ford ducted by top officials of the Trac tor and Implement Divison, Ford Motor Company.

Smith said the Ford officials, led by Irving A. Duffy, Ford vice president and general manager of the Division, and Merritt D. Hill, assistant general manager brought dealers up to date on 1956 merchandising and product developments.

The Ford tractor - implement dealers discussed sales and services plans for theexpandingline of Ford farm products, and saw several of the new implements that will be on sale in this area in the near future, Smith said.

He said Mr. Duffy told the group that Ford increased its tractor production by 29 per cent in 1955, and that more than one out of every five wheel-type tractors built in the United States last year was a Ford.

Duffy also said Ford expects increased sales during 1956, which will be the first full year that Ford has had 11 models of tractors, as well as an expanded line of farm implements."

Duffy also reviewed the progress made by Ford in the farm machinery industry during 1955, pointing to the establishment of a major, integrated Research and Engineering Center, employing some 500 engineering personnel to develope new and improved farm machinery, and a new outdoor Farm Machinery Evaluation Center, where new designs are tested throughout the year. Both facilities are located at the Tractor and Implement Division's general offices in Birmingham, Michigan

"Mr. Duffy also pointed out that the Ford tractor plant in Highland Park, Michigan, now has the industry's most modern assmebly line," Smith said.

Two McClarens Win Top Prize Money For Cotton Production

S. W. McClaren Jr. took $100 prize money as winner of first place in 1955 Cotton Production Contest sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce.

McClaren was declared winner with H. L. McClaren of the same community (Marlow) winning the second prize of $50.

Judging was based on 1. Yield percent 50. 2. Improved farm prac tices percent 30. 3. Records 20 percent.

Prizes and awards were presented to the winners at the Chamber of Commerce office on Saturday Feb. 11, by John A. Smith, chairman of the Crops & Conservation Committee and President Bill Burns.

DAR Asks February Observance Of "American History Month"

Calling for a rededication to the principles of "the just pride of Patriotism", Miss Gertrude S. Carraway, President General, National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, has asked for nationwide observance of February as AMERICAN HISTORY MONTH.

"Americanism", said Miss Craraway, "is faith, belief that man, with God's help, is capable of self-rule. Based on eternal principles of freedom and justice, it is timeless - just as essential in this age as in the past. Only by a thorough understanding of the principles on which this nation was built, can we understand the spirit of America and pass on to our posterity 'Freedom's Holy Light'."

The National Society, D.A.R., Miss Carraway declared, does everything within its power to keep green the memory of George Washington, whose birthday falls this month, and that of the other patriots who helped make this country free. Miss Carraway said, "is the D.A.R. effort to keep alive the principles of George Washington honesty, integrity, loyalty, and unswerving devotion to duty".

"The D.A.R., an organization of women whose roots are firmly imbedded in the foundation of this nation, has a peculiar understanding of the fact that the more emphasis we place in the formative years upon love of country and a just price in its history the better our citizens will be bulwarked against the insidious poison of a treasonable conspiracy".

"That is why the D.A.R. has as a special project the encouragement of history teaching in the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades. Last year, the D.A.R. gave 2426 Certificates of Award to schoolchildren and 2750 History Medals for special excellance in American History, besides many other prizes.

"Genealogists may be interested to know that membership cards in the National Society, D.A.R., show that we have 282 members whose applications show decent from the Washington family. scores of other persons, of course both inside and outside the Society, can claim descent form the Washington's.

Apparently, closest in line of descent is Mrs. John Morrison Kerr of the District of Columbia, who is descended from Augustine Washington, half-brother of George Washington. Some others descended from George Washington's relatives are: Miss Aubrey J. Smith, 179 Brookdale Ave., New Rochelle, N. Y.; Mrs. Mary Allen, 1217 Everett Ave., Louisville, Ky.; Mrs. Ralph Clark, 208 S. Fourth St., Hannibal, Mo.; Mrs. Gladys Kilgore, St. John's Drive, Dallas, Tex.; Mrs. Isabell W. Elam, 307 Locust St., San Antonio Tex.; Mrs. Vernon G. Oliven, 739 Quebec Place, NW, Washington, D.C.; Mrs. William R. Waggoner, 1022½ S. Main St., Mt. Pleasant, Mich.; and Mrs. Marion Moncure Duncan, 218 South Fairfax St., Alexandria, Va.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

She Knew It All The Time

Chances are, long ago your grandma knew how to keep you from catching cold. Mine did. "Stay out of drafts," she'd warn. "Bundle up. Don't get wet."

Then, maybe, when you grew up you found that the old lady's theories were considered old fashioned. Germs were the thing—and the way to avoid a cold was to avoid infection by somebody who already had one.

Now I read where scientists aren't so sure. Germs carry a cold, of course, but they now believe something else "sets it off"—something like drafts, wet feet or going without your muffler. Grandma, take a bow!

From where I sit, there's liable to be sound reasoning behind the old customs people believe in. "Early to bed, early to rise," for instance — or the practice of drinking hot milk or a glass of beer at bedtime. I'm not saying you ought to hold with these beliefs yourself ... but you'd better get the facts before giving them the "chill."

In Memoriam

O. L. Kidd

WHEREAS the Great Architect of the Universe in His wisdom has called our friend and neighbor, the Honorable O. L. Kidd, from labor to rest;

AND WHEREAS the said O. L. Kidd was a fine citizen, a great lawyer, and a learned and wise Judge who combined his many worthy talents and ideals in strving for a more lofty jurisprudence in our Community, State and Nation, laboring with diligence and unusual foresight as a statesman in the ranks of his fellow laymen;

AND WHEREAS he was a great Christian and humanitarian, constantly and unselfishly giving of his time, his talents, and his means in helping the needy, the downtrodden and the forgotten of his fellowmen;

AND WHEREAS he built for himself a place unique in this community and the hearts of his fellow Texans;

AND WHEREAS his church, our great public school system, and the social and civic organizations of Cameron and Milam County bear the imprint of his splendid mind and great soul in such a way that every citizen of our City joins in sorrow with his talented and cultured family. We will all sorely miss his comforting presence and wise counsel.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Milam County Bar Association as a group, and the members separately and individually, extend to the members of the distinguished family of O. L. Kidd, our friend, our deepest sympathy in this time of sorrow and great loss; and that in all humility we express to them their sorrow is our sorrow, and that their loss is our loss; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of these resolutions be entered on the minutes of the District Court of Milam County, Texas; that a copy be furnished the family of our departed brother attorney; and that as an expression of our sadness that he is no more in our physical midst, when we adjourn and disperse at the close of this meeting of the Milam County Bar Association, we do so in memory of him who has preceeded us over the last mile of life's journey. And to the family of this man we loved, may God be with you in the day and in the night, and may He guide you as you go and as you come, to the end that you may understand His will, His wise plan and know the richness of your great blessing in having so great a man in your midst.

Salty Singing Open To Public

The Milam County Singing Convention will be held at Salty, Texas on Sunday, February 19, 1956.

The public is invited.

Miss Mary Randolph when putting in a window display of her second grade students told of one of her little artists, after the class had been studying about worms. The little boy had a page full of black dots. When asked where the worms were answered his teacher "Well you see Miss Randolph you can't see the worms. These are the holes, pointing to the dots and the worms are in the holes.

Dr. and Mrs. George Cotton of Temple and Professor Bill Hamilton of University of Pa. were Sunday dinner guests in the home of Dr. and Mrs. S. R. Cotton. The occasion was the birthday of Dr. George Cotton. He is the son of Dr. S. R. Cotton and is well known in Cameron.

Milam WMU Association Hears State President At Burlington

"Missions Our Mission" was the message brought by Mrs. Clem Hardy, State president of the Woman's Missionary Union auxiliary of the Milam Baptist Association which met Thursday February 9, at the First Baptist Church of Burlington.

The theme of the all day meeting was "Let your light so shine before men."

Mrs. Hardy, with her husband, was missionary in Brazil for twenty years, She told the ladies that the Southern Baptist women gave nearly four million dollars to Foreign Msisions in 1954, and that up to January 15, the 1955 total in Texas alone was nearly to the million mark.

Mrs. Hardy used four of the Woman's Missionary Union fundamentals for her outline. They were, stewardship, mission study, prayer and community missions. She said her prayer for the Baptist women of Texas this year is "that we will love the Lord first and our neighbors as ourselves."

Mrs. Perry Holder, Cameron, president of the auxiliary was in charge of the all day meeting. Approximately seventy-five women and Mrs. Hardy's husband attended the meeting.

Mrs. Jimmie Asher, Cameron, president of District 15 WMU, used Romans 10:8 15 for her devotional.

Five standing committee chairmen gave reports of work that has been done and suggestions of things to do. They were Mrs. Gib Terry, Cameron, Community Missions; Mrs. A. L. Gatewood, Mission study; Mrs. Holmet Pearce, San Gabriel, Stewardship, Mrs. M Mrs. A. E. Jones, Cameron, Young Peoples Director.

Cpl. T. R. Majors In "Moose Horn" Alaska Exercise

Cpl. Theodore R. Majors, 22, whose wife, Emma, lives at Norfolk, Va., is taking part in the Army's Alaskan "Exercise Moose Horn" in the Big Delta area, 165 miles from the Arctic Circle.

During the four-week maneuver several thousand troops will receive practical training in tactical operations and cross-country movement under simulated combat conditions. Winter temperatures in the region drop to about 50 degrees below zero.

Also, two methods of arctic supply, airdrop and giant over-snow tractor-sled-trains, are being compared.

Corporal Majors is regularly assigned as a squad leader with Company I of the 71st Infantry Division's 4th Regiment. He entered the Army in May 1954 and received basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C.

Now Is The Time To Sod Your Waterways In Bermuda Grass

Have you made preparation to sod your waterways?

Now is the time to sod waterways in preparation for terrace construction this fall. Temple Work Unit personnel assigned to the Central Texas Soil Conservatiom District have assisted landowners in staking 86 waterways. The waterways will be sodded to Bermuda grass or seeded to King Ranch bluestem. The Central Texas Soil Conservation District has a Bermuda grass sprigging machine and grass drill for rent that makes seeding and sodding waterways and pastures a simple job.

Burlington 4-H Girls Take Chicks In Growing Contest

Betty Foshea and Carol Jean Helpert of the Burlington 4-H Club have signed up for taking chicks in the eight week growing contest being sponsored by the Cameron Chamber of Commerce.

At a meeting of the Burlington 4-H boys and girls on Thursday Feb. 9 with the club sponsor Mrs. Schonhoeft and County Agent Moore and Mrs. Colbert as visitors the club projects were discussed.

Gardening on a half acre plot is being undertaken by the boys and girls this year. A big hot bed has been dug and is ready for seeds. Milk cartons are being saved to put tomato plants in and these will later be trasferred to the garden. The plan is to have onions, cabbage, tomatoes, radishes, lettuce, carrots, mustard ggreens, turnips, beets, squash, blackeyed peas, yellow wax beans and Kentucky Pole beans, Burpee Stringless green pod beans and one row of potatoes. One of popcorn.

Mr. Moore explained that fifty-five chicks would be furnished by a sponsor in the chick groiwng contest coming up and told how the young grower could get that number of chicks, raise them for eight weeks and then enter five of the best in the contest. The five entered will go to the sponsor and the younster then will have fifty left for his work. Two of the girls signed up.

CONTRACTORS' NOTICE OF TEXAS HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION

Sealed proposals for constructing 1.429 miles of Brazos R. Br. & Approaches located at Brazos R., west of Hearne on Highway No. US 190, covered by S 103 (2), in Robertson & Milam County, will be received at the Highway Department, Austin, until 9:00 A.M. Feb. 21, 1956, and then publicly opened and read.

This is a "Public Works" Project, as defined in House Bill No. 54 of the 43rd Legislature of the State of Texas and House Bill No. 115 of the 44th Legislature of the State of Texas, and as such is subject to the provisions of said House Bills. No provisions herein are intended to be in conflict with the provisions of said Acts.

In accordance with the provisions of said House Bills, the State Highway Commission has ascertained and set forth in the proposal the wage rate, for each craft or type of workman or mechanic needed to execute the work on above named project, now prevailing in the locality in which the work is to be performed, and the Contractor shall pay not less than these wage rates as shown in the proposal for each craft of type of laborer, workman or mechanic employed on this project.

Legal holiday work shall be paid for at the regular governing rates.

Plans and specifications available at the office of Joe G. Hanover, Resident Engineer Hearne Texas, and Texas Highway Department, Austin. Usual rights reserved. 45-2tc.

Bo Peeps . . .

wife that we at the Herald DON'T need any news. THAT IS THE LAST STRAW. That is what an opposing lawyer would OBJECT TO as being irrelevant and NOT BASED ON FACT. You just mail or bring in anything you want to about your cub scouts Mrs. Wallace WE WANT IT.

The Groundhog went back in his hole, in Cameron, for six more weeks of winter. He didn't see his shadow but he saw some Christmas decorations, thought it was December, and ran like mad back into his hole.

"He's a no good horse-thief, a liar, a black-mailer etc. etc."... but don't write up anything about him because may wife and I play cards with him and his wife ... they are good friends of ours ... I have been told this on more than one occasion in Cameron. That's brotherly love.

Lynn Landrum "Thinking Out Loud" in the Big D Morning News wrote a bit of "Literature" last Friday. On "Truth and Truman." ....Mr. Truman gives faith and allegiance to his party, rather than to the Declaration of Independence...."Truth with Mr. Truman is a subjective thing. He perceives a slur to be resented, a charge to be refuted, a disclosure to be covered over. Then he perceives an untruth which, if loudly and often proclaimed, might do the trick. Mr. Truman sparks the gap—and falsehood becomes truth. He quite sincerely succumbs to his own persuasion. (Isn't that a gem?)

This is known, in the livery-stable vocabulary of Mr. Truman as giving them hell. Auspices of truth of course, can not be claimed as an outstanding feature of hell... The Truman courage always overtops the clarity of Truman thinking....and so on and on.

Mrs. Truman was once asked when her illustrious husband spoke, in public, of "Putting manure on a garden". "Can't you persuade your husband to use a word more discreet than manure?" "My goodness you don't know how hard it was for me to get him to use THAT WORD! the distraught Mrs. Truman is quoted as answering.

While we're "givin 'im 'ell we heard this one too. While George Washington couldn't tell a tie and many a politician can't tell the truth, Harry Truman can't tell the DIFFERENCE. Why don't the "Old Captain" just fade away?

Any similarity between ideas expressed in this column and good judgement are purely coincidental.

Here is a subtile compliment, or an inane remark, with which I am often confronted when seeking information. Please read, mark, learn and inwardly digest it and NEVER be guilty of using it again ...will you please? Huh? Here it is "You are a newspaper man YOU SHOULD KNOW." Perhaps that is so and perhaps a lot of people should know the same thing and when I GET that piece of information I will make it a point to see that they do find out ...A newspaper often gets its choicest information by way of inquiry? My BIG STORY came in the TEMPLE MORNING NEWS. A carrier of the opposition newspaper called to inquire if it were true that Clyde Barrow and Bonnie Parker were killed in La. The upshot of that question was that our paper was enabled to get an EXTRA out twenty minutes ahead of the other paper ....If YOU know something happened or you SUSPECT that it did please tell us all you know about it and we will get the details, if it's NEWS, and may we say in ALL SINCERITY "That is our business." We do NOT have a crystal ball. Go ahead and feel as good as you want to about knowing something ahead of us but PLEASE tell us what you know and then we can fill everybody in on the DETAILS.

Prize Winning Jet Airplane In Herald Window Saturday Feb. 18

The Jet age is here in Cameron that is.

Out in the Salem community there is a 27 year old farmer and his urbanized brother who works in a Service Station who are making jet airplanes as a hobby, scale models that is, but they fly .. of course not very fast ..... just a measley 95 miles per hour and it burns up its supply of fuel in one minute. The fuel supply is six ounces.

The manufacturers of this model jet are Bernard and Frank Mueck. Bernard, 27, was a Private First Class in artillery during the Korean war. Frank was too young at the time for service.

You'd think, from looking over this one nich to one foot model that one of the builders must have been in aviation, that he had flown endless hours, a pilot, navitator or bombadier or something. "I've flown in a Piper Cub a time or two out at Cameron Airport" said Bernard and that is all the air time this model plane builder has had. Frank also is earthbound in body only.

The model, pictured in this paper, with its makers, is a Convair Delta wing XF-92-A. It is hand controlled on seventy feet of wire and flies in a circle at 95 m.p.h. The model is scaled at one inch to a foot. The fuselage is 41 inches long and the wing span is 31 inches. The model is powered by a dyna-jet engine which has. 4½ pounds thrust. Weight of the model is six pounds and took 206 hours to build.

Made of balsawood which is a very light and strong wood used for model planes the fuselage is insulated on the inside with two layers of aluminum foil, asbestos paper on a .020 aluminum tube. Between each insulation is a half inch space for air to keep the engine cool. White Auto lacquer was used for the finish. The model did not come in a kit but was built from a full sized set of plans and every piece was hand cut, fitted and glued.

The model recently won two first place blue ribbons. One was at the Heart O'Texas Fair at Waco and the other at the Milam County Livestock show and P.T.A. Carnival at Rockdale.

A number of Cameron boys own propeller driven models and the Mueck boys built five of the obsolescent propeller craft models before coming "Up to date" with a jet model.

These local planes will be on display in one window of the Cameron Herald Saturday February 18.. The following week the display will be in the window until the Civic Center committee can get a display ready which will show the layout of the proposed civic building.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our friends and neighbors for their many kind expressions of sympathy shown during the illness and at the death of our loved one, William Harrison Henley.

We are deeply grateful to doctors T. E. Crump, Howard K. Wilson, Charles H. Howard and Leland T. Denson and to the special nurses, Mrs. H. C. Tindell, Mrs. Dempsey Allen and the staff of nurses at the St. Edwards Hospital.

To those who sent flowers and food and to anyone who helped us in any way, may God bless each of you is our prayer.

Mrs. J. N. Parrett and
Mrs. Fred Williams.

Colonel . . .

Colonel Holmes drew a design of the door on a blackboard and explained its principal features, among which is its simplicity. There are eight ways you can hang a door and with our product you can hang it any of these ways and you'll be right. You can't go wrong. The doors are made of three ply plywood. There isn't any such thing he said, as a non warping door, but he went on to show the precautions against this taken by his company.

Only the finest glue is used and the doors, in stacks of eight, have clamps applied and they are pressed in a drying room for twelve hours.

Phillipine Mahogany and Japanese White Ash are two popular ply woods used and the two most likely to be used in the Cameon operation. Mills for the Phillipine mahogany are in Japan Holmes said. Other woods used at times are Oriental Birch and Italian Poplar.

The sales policy of the company is unique with the theory of "Building a better mouse-trap" applied. The wholesalers and jobbers buy only from mailings. There is no sales organization. The buyers of more than 10,000 doors per day produced now by the concern "Just beat a path to the doors of the company with their orders."

Colonel Jay Holmes and Mrs. Holmes are now living at a Cameron Motel and would like to find a furnished apartment or house in Cameron. He declares that he has furniture in two other parts of the country at this time and is not desirous of accumulating more until he builds.

Holmes is assistant to the president of the company and prior to world war two was a referee in professional football. He is a graduate of the University of Nebraska where he played "blocking back." Using that early training he has continued in the business world as a "blocking back" he said. In his discourse on the size of some of the trucks which haul doors away from the plant he indicated with a sweep of his hand that they were as long as the dining room (Milam Coffee Shop). When Jean Kirk called his hand following the meeting on the length of the trucks the Colonel retorted "Well that only goes to show that I catch on quickly at the art of becoming a Texan."

Earl Huffor, Lieutenant Governor of the Ninth District International Kiwanis was a guest at the meeting. Huffor taught 35 years at Sam Houston College at Huntsville and is now in the Life Insurance business. He stayed following the meeting and talked to members of the club about affairs of the club.

vance. He extends a special invitation to parents and the public to attend and participate in community or county observances.

Forerunners of the present 4-H clubs were the corn clubs for boys and tomato clubs for girls. The first corn club in Texas organized by a county agent was the one in Jack county. It was organized and supervised by the late Tom Marks. The year was 1908. Today 4-H club members conduct demonstrations and activities which touch every field of farming, ranching and home life. Their classrooms are the farms, ranches and homes of Texas where they learn to do by doing.

Kamenicky Furnishings Destroyed On Eve Of Move

The Adolph Kamenickys would be moving into their new home on the Salem road....if they had anything to move.

On Sunday at about 9.30 a.m. their old house which still had all their furnishings in it burned to the ground before fire equipment could get there.

Tuesday B. L. Varner and John Sefcik were in Cameron seeing friends of the Kamenicky's to garner a few dollars with which to help them replace some of their lost clothes and furnishings. Mr. Varner felt sure that when many of the people found out about the loss that they would want to contact him at 258-W2 or Sefcik at 258-J3. They will either be glad to pick up a contribution.

Gabriel Blow Your Horn Is Jr. Class Play

The Junior Class of Yoe High School will present it's Annual play, "Gabriel, Blow Your Horn", on February 21, 1956, at 8:00 p.m at the Yoe High School Auditorium.

The story concerns Janet who is whisked off to the mountains by her irate aunt because she disapproves of the match between Janet and Herb. But Herb gets there ahead of them, puts on a false beard, takes on a phony accent, and gets Gabriel, the lazy caretaker, to give him a job as Cousin Sam, from 't' other side of the mountain. Then Aunt Thelma arrives with Janet and a gay houseparty in tow. Harold, whom Aunt Thelma hopes Janet will marry, tries to propose to Janet, but Herb works fast and prevents Harold from "popping the question." Herb pretends to be insulted in the argument which follows and pulls a knife on Harold—. Herb has a clean field then until his Dad appears to break up the match. The misunderstandings multiply until the case appears hopeless! An accidnet clears away all doubts and misunderstandings — and romance blossoms all over the mountainside.

The characters featured in this delightful three-act comedy are: Grover McCullen as Gabriel Pennington; Marye Horstmann as Zerusia (his wife); Evelyn Vybiral as Daisy Mae, Barbara Ann Young as Janet Smith; Rita Moraw as Elinor Barnes; Carol Sanders as Mildred Clyde; Paul Hoelscher as Pete Wright; Lawrence Tiller; as Frank Stephens; Emory Camp as Harold Dillon; Jeff Burkes as Herbert Brown Jr.; Johnny Solomon as Herbert Brown, Sr..

Jiminy Crickets Gives Hot Tips To Pinocchio

"Old Stories We Love" are portrayed in the Herald display this week by second graders.

Three Billy Goats Gruff, Pinocchio about are listed in the win- Bears.

The children made the booklets on display and colored the back ground.

The Do's and Don'ts which Jiminy Crickets moralized to Pinocchio about are listed in the window. 1. Don't run away. 2. Don't tell stories. 3. Don't tear up your books. 4. Don't bury your money 1. Don't listen to bad boys. 6. Don't fight. 7. Don't be lazy and 8. DON'T PLAY HOOKY. Then on the positive side of Jiminy Crickets ledger was: 1. DO go to school. 2. DO study. 3. DO obey your parents. 4. DO obey your teachers. 5. DO be kind and good.

Teachers of these little ones are Mrs. Hudson with her 2W section and Miss Mary Randolph with her 2z group.

The large model of Pinocchio is a work of art which rounds out an entire window of excellent second grade art work.

Americans Stay In Hot Water More Than Ever

Our social and economic advances in the home have caused the family demand for hot water to increase in recent years, according to Julia Hunter, Home Economics Director for Lone Star Gas Company.

The increased demand for hot water has, in turn, upped the requirements a home water heater must meet and has in many cases outmoded water heaters now in use, Miss Hunter said.

The rapid rise in the use of automatic washers in homes was cited by Miss Hunter as one of the reasons for increased demand of hot water. Automatic washers use 13 to 20 gallons of hot water for each load of clothes. The average family washes three to four loads each week, she said.

Families owning automatic washers usually wash clothes more often than when other methods are used, Miss Hunter pointed out.

Other water uses that have caused additional demands on the home water heater include food preparation, dish washing, house cleaning, and personal cleanliness Miss Hunter said.

The homemaker washes an average of 4,500 square feet or one acre of dishes in a lifetime and the now widely used automatic dishwasher uses an average of seven gallons a load, Miss Hunter continued. An average of three gallons of hot water a load is used by the hand method.

Additional bathrooms are being built into more homes, again increasing the demand for hot water. And almost all new homes are being built with showers. The average tub bath requires 15 gallons of hot water while the average shower requires three gallons a minute.

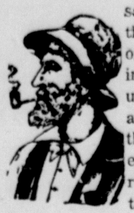
LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER UNSURE ABOUT GOVERNORS ON CARS, BUT THINKS IT'D WORK ON TRACTORS

Editor's note: The Little River Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Little River discusses speed this week, something he has only theoretical knowledge of.

Dear editar:



I don't have too much faith in cause it's hard to say what a nation thinks when most of the individuals in it haven't made up their minds yet and also because they miss so often except when they report on something you can't public opinion polls, mainly bereally check up on, like whether 63 per cent of the women favor a new style or 59 per cent of the men believe the winters aren't as cold as they used to be, but read one the other night that got me interested.

According to it, 70 per cent of the American public is in favor of putting governors on cars to hold them down to 60 miles an hour.

Now I am not disputing the accuracy of this poll, but if 70 per cent of the drivers think they're going too fast, why don't they slow down? And if anybody thinks keeping all cars from going faster than 60 miles an hour will stop all accidents, my advice to him is to stay off the streets the next time he goes to town, and in the meantime check up on his hospitalizatfon insurance.

Of course I know speed is the cause of lots of accidents, but speed is no fixed thing. If you're going 40 miles an hour and somebody meets you on top of the hill going the same speed, you've got an 80 mile an hour wreck and science hasn't invented the gadget that'll prevent it.

Personally, I don't have the answer to the wreck problem, and if anybody else has, he's hiding it. I don't think about it except when I get on the highway, and when I get on the highway I'm too busy avoiding cars to day any clear thinking.

But this idea of a governor interests me. Not for cars, but for tractors. It's not that tractors go too fast going up one row and down another, it's just that they go too often. That's one thing that's causing the surplus.

What this country needs is a governor which will allow you to run a tractor only three days a week, although here again a gadget is no substitute for thinking. I thought of slowing down on my tractor work long ago, and while it hasn't made me rich, can't anybody pin any part of the surplus on me.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

Battling Blindness

In a play by the famous English poet John Milton, the Biblical hero Samson mourns his blindness for condemning him "to live a life half dead, a living death." Milton wrote feelingly with real knowledge—for he too was blinded when he was still in the prime of life.

Men in every age have shared Milton's horror of blindness. The affliction is particularly tragic today, however, for in this time of increased medical knowledge, it is all too often an unnecessary one.

"One-half of the nation's total sightless persons might be able to see if they or their parents had taken proper precautions," states the U.S. National Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

Eye infections should always be treated with care for they can, if unattended, cause blindness. A particularly dangerous period, medical experts inform us, is infancy, when the eyes are most delicate and susceptible to infections. Such infections, according to U.S. statistician Louis Dublin, rank among the chief causes of blindness in the U.S. Fortunately, science has made vast strides both in preventing and treating infections in the eyes of newborn babies.

One of the more recent advances has been the use of the broad-range antibiotic Terramycin for this purpose.

Medical specialists have found Terramycin free from the side-effects of silver nitrate, hitherto routinely applied to a new-born baby's eyes to prevent infection.

The drug, tested on 1,700 infants at Maimonides Hospital in Brooklyn, saved two out of three babies from "pink-eye" or conjunctivitis, according to a medical report.

"It's Your Money" Says Texas Press Association

For many years the Texas Press Association — of which this newspaper, along with a vast majority of all Texas newspapers, is a member — has suggested laws that would require governing bodies of the state, various districts, and municipaltiies, to open their records to the public.

In many instances, publication of minutes would be required, and in the case of agencies handling public funds, publication of a financial statement would be mandatory.

Some progress has been made in these efforts, but not nearly as much as the importance of the project justifies. There never has been a great deal of opposition to the TPA proposals. But they have been shunted aside for other matters.

Apathy — not opposition — has kept them off the statute books.

Now all Texas is concerned over the numerous, unsavory circumstances that have come to light the past few years. There have been the Duval County revelations; the veterans land investigations; the U. S. Trust and other insurance debacles; to say nothing of smaller local instances of corruption and abuse of public trust of which there have been many.

Men who are in a position to know — such as the Attorney General of Texas — say that none of these things could have gone on for long had there been adequate laws governing PUBLIC NOTICE. It is doubtful that any of them would have been attempted, had there been requirements that official actions be made public.

Proper public notice laws will prevent such things in the future. Such laws automatically lead to good government.

This is an election year. If you think public business should be made public, ask each candidate for the legislature how he feels about secrecy in government affairs. Vote for and support men who pledge themselves to help pass legislation requiring publication of financial reports by insurance companies, county treasurers, and any and all persons who handle public funds.

Couple Wed At Buckholts Live In Fort Worth

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy D. Nichols are at home at 1014 South Lake, Fort Worth following their recent marriage at Buckholts Hope Lutheran church. Rev. John Pietsch, pastor read the wedding vows in a double ring ceremony with only relatives and close friends attending.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Henson of Buckholts. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Nichols of Fort Worth.

Soloist was Miss Joy West accompanied by Miss Marion Fuchs who played the wedding marches.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a waltz length gown of white net and brocade over taffeta styled with a strapless bodice of brocade cascading to points in the full bouffant skirt.

Pearls adorned the little round collar and front of bolero. Her finger tip length veil was attached to a tiara of seed pearls and rhinestones She carried a white bible with her bridal bouquet of white carnations and satin streamers.

For something borrowed the bride wore a tiny gold cross belonging to Mrs. W. M. Deubler of Ft. Worth, and a good luck penny in her white brocade opera pump.

Miss Helen Svetlik, college student in Ft. Worth was maid of honor and Jimmy Henson of Sharp, uncle of the bride served as best man. Miss Svetlik wore a waltz length gown of pale blue lace and net over taffeta styled with a fitted lace bodice and head dress of tiny net ruffles and taffeta formed a small half hat. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

David Henson brother of the bride was ring bearer. He carried a pillow of brocade edged in net topped with a floral spray of forget-me-nots and streamers to which the rings were attached.

For her daughters' wedding Mrs. Henson chose a navy blue dress complimented with a corsage of yellow mums.

A reception immediately after the wedding was held in the Educational building. The bride's table laid with a white lace cloth held an arrangement of chrysanthemums and the three tiered wedding cake topped with a cluster of white wedding bells flanked by lighted tapers.

Miss Marion Fuchs served the wedding cake made by the bride's aunt, Mrs. R. L. Zedlitz. Miss Grace Stoebner poured coffee.

A special guest was Mrs. H. R. Zedlitz, grand mother of the bride. Sixty guests attended.

For travel the bride chose a pink suit of tweed with matching hat and gloves, other accessories were black. She wore a corsage from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Nichols is a 1955 graduate of Buckholts high school and has been a student at vocational nursing school in Ft. Worth since Sept. Mr. Nichols is employed at Convair Aircraft in Ft. Worth.

Twila Bollinger Becomes Mrs. B.R. Holloway

Twila Joy Bollinger became the bride of Billy Ray Holloway, both of Cameron at the Cameron Gospel Tabernacle on Sunday Feb. 5 at 3 p.m.

The bride is daughter of Mrs. Linnie Bollinger and the late R. L. Bollinger. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Holloway.

The double ring ceremony was performed with Rev. George Bollinger, brother of the bride, from Houston officiating with Rev. H. M. Bowley of Cameron assisting.

Three large baskets of white stock with greenery decorated the altar.

Nuptial music was played by Mrs. Edison Fikes of Cameron and soloist was Mrs. Floris Fuchs of Rogers, each wore white carnation corsages. "I Love You Truly" was the solo.

Clint Bollinger, brother of the bride, gave his sister in marriage as she wore net and lace over a satin gown with solid lace top with fingertip sleeves, solid lace peplin arriving at the waist in points. The bride carried white carnations on a white bible with white streamers. A halo of flowers covered by net was the headdress.

The maid of honor was Mrs. Mattie Gibbs, and the bridesmaid was Miss Ann Holloway both sisters of the groom. The Maid of Honor was dressed in blue dress with matching stole and carried yellow chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid wore a pink dress with matching stole carrying purple mums.

Cheryl Bollinger, niece of the bride, of Houston was flower girl wearing a blue dress with net over taffeta and matching hairdress.

Ring bearer was Ronnie Holloway, nephew of the groom, of Cameron and Rodney Elbel of San Antonio, was best man. The groomsman was Duane Bollinger, brother of the bride. Ushering was Kenneth Bowley and Bartee Johnson, both of Cameron.

A reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clint Bollinger saw the rooms decorated with white stock and greenery. The bride's table was covered with lace table cloth, from which a three tiered wedding cake placed on a large mirror with lace daintily ruffled around the cake. The cake was baked by Mrs. H. Harber. It was topped with a miniature bride and groom. Serving was Mrs. George Bollinger, Mrs. Clint Bollinger and Mrs. H. Harber. These ladies also poured.

Miss Betty Jane Shuffield presided at the bride's book and registered more than one hundred guests.

The bride's going away dress was navy blue with a white colar large white buttons with rhinestone centers, down the front and on the pockets. Her accessories were beige.

The couple journeyed to Austin and Houston for their honeymoon after which they will be at home in De Ridder, Louisiana after February 20.

Mrs. Holloway attended school at Bentonville Arkansas and was most recently employed at Hornung Hatchery in Cameron.

The groom went to Yoe High School prior to service in the First Armored Division.

Out of town guests were from Houstin, Waco, Austin, Jacksonville, Overton, Rockdale, Gause, San Antonio and Maysfield.

Official Memorandum

By ALLAN SHIVERS
Governor of Texas
AUSTIN, TEXAS

GREETINGS:

The greatest source of assurance for the future of the American way of life is our Public School System, which enables our youngsters to become familar with the magnificent history of men and events which made our Republic the most powerful, respected and favored country the worl dhas ever known.

The public schools provide the tools of knowledge which will equip our young men and women to become constructive and responsible citizens in this land of freedom.

We have a great responsibility to maintain and advance the ideals and standards which our people have come to expect of their public schools. We must keep pace with the growing needs of our schools by providing new classrooms, improved methods and by encouraging loyal, able, qualified men and women to adopt teaching as a lifetime career.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, as Governor of Texas, do hereby designate the week of March 5 — 10, 1956, as in Texas, and urge every citizen to visit at least one public school during this period and to become personally acquainted with the programs and accomplishments of our educational system.

In official recognition whereof, I hereby affix my signature this 10th day of January, 1956

Governor of Texas
Allan Shivers

FEB. 22 IS U. S. ARMY RESERVE DAY IN TEXAS!

YOUNG MEN WANTED

UNCLE SAM needs young men for his peacetime Army of Reservists. YOUNG MEN need what Uncle Sam has to offer.

Strong nations seldom are attacked. It is only when a nation becomes weak, when its military strength is at a low ebb . . . when its men are untrained for battle . . . that an enemy strikes. To keep peace — keep strong. For a nation to maintain military might it must have a large, well-trained Ready Reserve — well versed in the latest in military know how and equipment.

It is up to the young men of America to provide this manpower. Under the Reserve Forces Act of 1955 American youth may continue in school with a minimum of interruption, while serving in the U.S. Army Reserve.

Investigate. Contact your nearest U.S. Army Reserve Unit.

Trinity Lutheran Moves Sunday 8:30 a.m. Service To Milam Theatre

Sunday Feb. 5, Trinity Lutheran Church changed its place of worship from the IOOF Hall to the Milam Theater. The congregation will continue to meet in the Milam Theater every Sunday for Worship at 8:30 a.m. and Sunday School at 9:30. a.m.

In April the congregation will adopt its constitution and formally organize as Trinity Lutheran Church. After its organization the congregation will make plans to purchase property and to build a house of worship.

Since the beginning of Trinity Lutheran Church on August 14, 1955, the congregation has worshipped each Sunday morning with an average attendance of 30 people. Steady progress has been made by this Lutheran group. At present an Adult Instruction Class is being conducted every Friday night in the IOOF Hall with 21 enrolled. This class is especially designed to acquaint the individual with the teachings of the Lutheran Church as well as to make the individual eligible for membership in the Lutheran Church.

Trinity Lutheran expresses its gratitude to the IOOF Lodge for the past use of their hall and also extends its appreciation to Dan White, manager of Milam Theater, for offering the theater for Sunday morning services.

A cordial invitation is extended to all to visit Trinity Lutheran at the Milam Theater. Trinity Lutheran is being served by the Rev. Dewyth Beltz who is also pastor of First Lutheran Church, Rosebud, Texas.

Lonely Shepherd Finds A Way To "Keep In Tune"

The observance of World Prayer Day becomes a unifying force in local communities and has its contributing power in the building of world community.

The chain of prayer will begin at daybreak February 17 in the Fiji and Tonga Islands, just west of the international date line. The sun, as it reaches us on this special day, will have a special radiance and a special message for those who are prepared to tune in to the prayer circuit and listen for the divine note that strikes the tone of 'oneness' that can bring harmony to a discordant world. Everyone of us has a part to play. Are we in tune?

In the theme and the far-flung call can be seen an analogy to the story of a shepherd on a lonely ranch in America's west. His violin, the only close companion during long winter evenings, was out of tune, and try as he would, the shepherd could not retune it. He wrote to one of the national radio networks and asked if, on a certain evening when their orchestra was scheduled to broadcast, they would have the first violinist sound the 'A' so he could bring his own instrument into harmony again. The designated night arrived and across the miles from the city, to the isolated farmhouse went the message, "Stand by for the 'A' and join us in Beethoven's Pastorale Symphony, which we are tonight dedicating to a shepherd in Montana." The great maestro sounded the 'A' several times, and then the orchestra led into the symphony. The shepherd caught the tone, brought his violin into key and in a moment, as his skill permitted, was blending the notes from his instrument to the harmonies of the orchestra.

Out over a globe-encircling network goes the "spirit of the World Day of Prayer." From it the peoples of the earth who "tune in" can get the true note and can bring their lives into closer harmony with the Great Maestro and with their fellow men. Each of us acknowledges that there is undue discord in the world, a world that has in it the making of a great symphony. But symphonies take constant keeping in tune, and they take hard work.
